Lair Company Music Store Will Be Moved August 1st

Owing to the strained condition of the buying public we have decided, as a measure of business safety, to retrench in overhead expense by moving the stock in our Sikeston Music Store back to the parent store in Charleston. This move will be made in time to vacate the building we occupy by August 1st.

Those who owe us past due accounts are requisted to make arrangement to square up before that date. Those who owe us deferred payments will please remit to Charleston as payments mature.

We have on hand here a good stock of high grade pianos, player pianos and phonographs. A number of them have been slightly used but are in good serviceable condition. Rather than go to the trouble and expense of packing and draying them to Charleston, we are willing to take a good deal less than the regular price. If all cash is not available, we will be glad to extend business-like terms to anyone worthy of credit.

In closing our Sikeston place, we desire to thank everyone who has helpd us in our efforts to place good music in Scott County homes—and there are hundreds who have helped us. We have not lost faith in the future of the music business in Southeast Missouri at all, but are simply drawing in our lines until people in general get on their feet again.

In the meantime we are in good shape in Charleston to serve anyone who wants a good musical instrument, whether it is a Chickering Piano or an Edison Phonograph and will exert ourselves to please our Scott County patrons. Mr. V. E. Williams, who opened up the Sikeston store, will remain with us in Charleston.

CONCENSION OF THE PROPERTY Carrying on With the American Legion

Of all the fruit that grows in the imperial valley of California, a considerable portion is planted and tended by disabled veterans of the World war. While receiving $100 monthly compensation from the government, the men are placed on tracts of land by the federal board of vocational edrehabilitation work, recently complimented the California department of the American Legion for safeguarding the interests of the veterans who are winning their way back to health and isefulness in the fruit-growing project.

The aid of women's clubs of the West in the interest of a coast to coast Victory Memorial highway will be solicited by Capitol post of the American Legion in Topeka, Kan., with which the plan originated. The Topeka Woman's club will place the request for co-operation before the comof women's organizations. Integral highways now in use would be hardsurfaced by the government. Bronze memorial figures of American soldiers in full equipment and with rifles at 'present arms" would mark all state

Another move to induce the United States government to force the release by the Bolsheviki of Capt. Emmet Kilpatrick, Uniontown, Ala., has originated with the department of Poland of the American Legion. Latest reports declare that the American, confined in a Moscow prison, is in a deplorable condition from brutality and terror. Captain Kilpatrick, a Red Cross worker, was captured in Crimea.

The National Americanism commision of the American Legion is making arrangements to have a member present at all Legion state conventions. In addressing the conventions the Americanism officials will lay emphasis upon the necessity of co-operation with teachers for the furtherance of education in citizenship, the promotion of patriotism and the development of Americanism.

A house-to-house canvass of the enire city, of Chicago has been undertaken by posts of the American Legion, in seeking out veterans who have been recent membership campaign in Illinois netted a gain of 10,000 members for the first four months of 1921 over the corresponding period of last year.

The American language will replace German in the services of the Bethany Reformed church of Baxter, Ia., under the provision of a resolution adopted by the congregation after a conference with the local American Legion post preaching in German at the funerals

Aerial mail flyers, their mechani cians and all who assist them in the U. S. Post Office department's air mail service will be ex-service men, according to an order issued by John S. Jordan, San Francisco, chief of construction, acting superintendent of the traffic division, air mail service, a copy of which has reached American Legion national headquarters.

When the town of Lawton, Okla. set about building a road to the oil fields, 20 miles away, Lowry post of building of a much-needed bridge about eighteen miles from town. During the construction members of the oost's Women's Auxiliary brought food o the busy Legionnaires every day.

Fifty-eight years of residence in America were not enough to induce a resident of Emerald, Neb., to familiarize himself with the American language and institutions of government As a result his application for final citizenship papers was denied at a naturalization hearing in which American Legion members testified.

A resolution calling upon congress to pass the American Legion's legislation for the relief of disabled veterans of the World war sent by an American Legion post at Newberry, S. C., was accompanied by a large pair of shears. An attached card bore the inscription: "For the Love of Mike, Cut Out the Red Tape."

"No plan for future preparedness can be carried out without the support of the American Legion," said General Pershing at a banquet held in his hon-

Lair Company Music Store Will Be Moved August 1st

Owing to the strained condition of the buying public we have decided, as a measure of business safety, to retrench in overhead expense by moving the stock in our Sikeston Music Store back to the parent store in Charleston. This move will be made in time to vacate the building we occupy by August 1st.

Those who owe us past due accounts are requisted to make arrangement to square up before that date. Those who owe us deferred payments will please remit to Charleston as payments mature.

We have on hand here a good stock of high grade pianos, player pianos and phonographs. A number of them have been slightly used but are in good serviceable condition. Rather than go to the trouble and expense of packing and draying them to Charleston, we are willing to take a good deal less than the regular price. If all cash is not available, we will be glad to extend business-like terms to anyone worthy of credit.

In closing our Sikeston place, we desire to thank everyone who has helpd us in our efforts to place good music in Scott County homes—and there are hundreds who have helped us. We have not lost faith in the future of the music business in Southeast Missouri at all, but are simply drawing in our lines until people in general get on their feet again.

In the meantime we are in good shape in Charleston to serve anyone who wants a good musical instrument, whether it is a Chickering Piano or an Edison Phonograph and will exert ourselves to please our Scott County patrons. Mr. V. E. Williams, who opened up the Sikeston store, will remain with us in Charleston.

Thomas J. Bannigan, of Hartford, Conn., was elected vice-commander, succeeding Mr. Emery in that position. Major Emery saw much fighting during the World war. He entered the second officers' training camp at Fort Sheridan August 27, 1917.

After finishing the course he was commissioned a captain of infantry and sent to France with the first group of Americans. He at first was assigned to the railway transportation there until February 20, 1918. Later he attended the First corps school at Gondrecourt until March 24, when he took charge of company F, Eighteenth infantry, First brigade, First division.

Major Emery participated in all the major actions with his regiment in 1918, at Cantigny in April, May and June; at St. Mihiel in September, and in the Meuse-Argonne offensive in September and October. He was commissioned a major of infantry August 30, 1918.

On October 9, 1918, during the Meuse-Argonne drive, Major Emery was wounded in the left arm ,and was invalided home, being discharged at Camp Custer. Soon after his return to Grand Rapids, he was elected a member of the Grand Rapids city commission, a position he has held since that time. Before entering the service he was a real estate and insurance

Carrying on With the American Legion

Of all the fruit that grows in the Imperial valley of California, a considerable portion is planted and tended by disabled veterans of the World war. While receiving $100 monthly compensation from the government, the men are placed on tracts of land by the federal board of vocational education and are assisted in getting out their crops. R. T. Fisher, assistant national director of the government's rehabilitation work, recently complimented the California department of the American Legion for safeguarding the interests of the veterans who are winning their way back to health and usefulness in the fruit-growing project.

The aid of women's clubs of the West in the interest of a coast to coast Victory Memorial highway will be solicited by Capitol post of the American Legion in Topeka, Kan., with which the plan originated. The Topeka Woman's club will place the request for co-operation before the coming convention of the state federation of women's organizations. Integral highways now in use would be hardsurfaced by the government. Bronze memorial figures of American soldiers in full equipment and with rifles at "present arms" would mark all state boundaries.

Another move to induce the United States government to force the release by the Bolsheviki of Capt. Emmet Kilpatrick, Uniontown, Ala., has originated with the department of Poland of the American Legion. Latest reports declare that the American, confined in a Moscow prison, is in a deplorable condition from brutality and terror. Captain Kilpatrick, a Red Cross worker, was captured in Crimea.

The National Americanism commission of the American Legion is making arrangements to have a member present at all Legion state conventions. In addressing the conventions the Americanism officials will lay emphasis upon the necessity of co-operation with teachers for the furtherance of education in citizenship, the promotion of patriotism and the development of Americanism.

A house-to-house canvass of the enire city, of Chicago has been undertaken by posts of the American Legion, in seeking out veterans who have been unsuccessful in adjustment of compensation claims with the government. A recent membership campaign in Illinois netted a gain of 10,000 members for the first four months of 1921 over the corresponding period of last year.

The American language will replace German in the services of the Bethany the provision of a resolution adopted by the congregation after a conference with the local American Legion post commander. The Legion objected to preaching in German at the funerals f veterans who were killed in France

Aerial mail flyers, their mechanicians and all who assist them in the U. S. Post Office department's air mail service will be ex-service men, according to an order issued by John S. Jordan, San Francisco, chief of construction, acting superintendent of the traffic division, air mail service, a copy of which has reached American Legion national headquarters.

A proper education for American children in China and Japan is the end sought by the Peking (China) post of the American Legion, which has written to Legion national headquarters to enlist the aid of ex-service men in the movement. The American Chamber of Commerce and other organizations are working with the Legion in the project.

Because they believe that Memorial day should be observed in a reverent and decorous manner, members of the American Legion in Indianapolis, Ind., have asked that the annual motor speedway race be held in the future on July 4 instead of on May 30. More than 130,000 persons attended the international motor classic this year.

When the town of Lawton, Okla. set about building a road to the oil fields, 20 miles away, Lowry post of the American Legion undertook the building of a much-needed bridge about eighteen miles from town. During the construction members of the post's Women's Auxillary brought food to the busy Legionnaires every day.

Fifty-eight years of residence in America were not enough to induce a resident of Emerald, Neb., to familiarize himself with the American language and institutions of government. As a result his application for final citizenship papers was denied at a naturalization hearing in which American Legion members testified.

A resolution calling upon congress to pass the American Legion's legislation for the relief of disabled veterans of the World war sent by an American Legion post at Newberry, S. C., was accompanied by a large pair of shears. An attached card bore the inscription: "For the Love of Mike, Cut Out the Red Tape."

"No plan for future preparedness can be carried out without the supp of the American Legion," said G Pershing at a banquet held in his hop

The new tariff bill will raise seven hundred million dollars for the national treasury. It will raise this money by putting up the bars against foreign commerce and giving the home manufacturer control of the American market. The consumer, as usual, will pay the bill.
